

October 25, 2007

NEWS FROM YOU

McIntosh joins Pike soccer staff

Submitted by Michael Morrison

October 25, 2007

Pike Soccer Club, one of the largest youth soccer clubs in Indiana, has announced the appointment of Brett McIntosh as technical coach.

McIntosh, active in Indianapolis youth soccer since 2000, most recently was the club director for Dynamo F.C. McIntosh recently completed his second season as an assistant women's soccer coach at Butler University.

He has over 14 years of coaching experience, including a stint as the top aide at Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis.

He also has represented the Indiana Youth Soccer association as a part of the Olympic Development Program Regional staff the past five years and serves as a coaching education instructor.

The Long Island, N.Y., native also served as the top assistant at the University of Indianapolis from 1997-1999.

On the field, McIntosh was a captain and four-year letter winner for the UIndy Greyhounds from 1993-1996, starting primarily as a midfielder.

McIntosh resides in Indianapolis with his wife, Chandra, and son, Douglas.

McIntosh joins a coaching staff that includes David Proctor, technical director of coaching, and Isang Jacob, Warner Moses and Max Hudspeth, directors of coaching.

Pike Soccer Club provides recreation and travel soccer programs to more than 3,000 youth players of all abilities, ages 4-19.

For more information or to register, visit www.pikesoccerclub.org or call (317) 767-0699.